Training Bottom Leads

Are you looking for a Training Adapter for your JPL Headset?

The Y-Training Leads with Microphone Mute Switch and QD connection enables you to plug two headsets into one desk phone, allowing a second user to monitor and participate in calls. It is an essential training aid that will enhance call-handling effectiveness.

- Allows two headsets to be connected to a single desk phone so a supervisor can monitor calls
- Both headsets can listen, but only one microphone will be muted
- Switch controls which microphone is muted
- Ideal for training sales and call centre staff

USB Bottom Leads explained

Many in the industry believe that over time desk phones will be phased out as all the functions found on them should be available through software and a click of a mouse on the PC. One thing you will need is a headset, the most likely connection would be USB.
